

Conference Host Committee Manual

I. Membership

A. Structure

The committee is generally composed of 10 – 20 members plus a chairperson and vice-chairperson, who are appointed by the FGFOA president. The chairperson serves as the coordinator and appoints a subcommittee chair for each major area of responsibility. The vice-chairperson is responsible for the budget and assists the chairperson in coordinating the activities. (All chairs, sub-chairs must be active members)

- Theme/Logo, Welcome Bags and Speaker Gifts
- Volunteers
- Golf/Sports Events
- Association Night
- Opening Session
- Tuesday Night Event
- Hospitality Suite
- President's Reception
- Transportation, if necessary

Each subcommittee chair is responsible for the completion of the tasks assigned to that subcommittee. Each committee member is assigned to one or more of the subcommittees.

B. Purpose, Goals and Action Plan

Purpose: To plan and organize various events and activities to be held in conjunction with the annual conference.

Goal: To enhance the annual conference by providing events and activities where delegates will become acquainted with other attendees in a friendly and enjoyable atmosphere. These events add to the educational value of the annual conference by allowing attendees to share their professional experiences with colleagues and others.

Plan of Action: To establish subcommittee assignments:
To develop a theme and logo that will give an identity to the annual conference

To memorialize the conference by providing welcome bags to delegates and customized gifts to speakers.

To plan and organize various events and activities; such as golf and sports tournaments, president's reception, association night event, opening session, Tuesday night event, and hospitality suite.

C. Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson Responsibilities

The chairperson is responsible for coordinating all major aspects of the committee including: establishing meeting times, chairing committee meetings, assisting subcommittee chairs with coordination of assignments, reporting activities and results to all committee members, presenting reports to the FGFOA president and Board of Directors, and preparing articles for the FGFOA Newsletter.

The chairperson is responsible for reviewing and recommending changes to the committee's purpose, goals, and plan of action, as listed in the Association Membership directory. Recommendations should be reviewed by the committee as a whole, and any changes forwarded to the Board of Directors for approval and inclusion in the next membership directory.

The chairperson attempts to attend all FGFOA Board meetings and is responsible for preparing and presenting a report of committee activities for all Board meetings. If the chair is unable to attend, arrangements should be made for the vice-chairperson or the liaison to present the report at the Board meeting.

The chairperson is responsible to summarize all committee activities for the year and present an annual report to the membership at the annual conference business luncheon.

The chairperson shall meet with the incoming chairperson and president to communicate his/her experience and concerns to facilitate an orderly transition. This meeting should occur either before or during the annual conference.

The vice-chairperson is responsible for the budget and the activity calendar, fills in for the chairperson when needed, and performs other duties as requested by the chairperson.

Subcommittee Chair Responsibilities

Each subcommittee chair is responsible for preparing and presenting reports to the committee chair on the progress of the respective subcommittee. Any meetings or conference calls necessary to accomplish the duties of the subcommittee are the responsibility of the respective chair.

D. Member Responsibilities

Committee members are responsible for assisting their subcommittee chair with organizing assigned event at the annual conference.

E. Meetings and Attendance

The Conference Host Committee may hold an organizational meeting at the annual conference to discuss goals and objectives for the year.

The use of conference calls and e-mail to conduct the business of the subcommittee is strongly encouraged.

F. Terms

All members are appointed for a one-year term.

G. Membership Roster

A listing of each committee member including mailing address, telephone number, FAX number, E-mail address, will be compiled and distributed to all committee members.

I. Budget

An allocation is included in the annual budget for expenses associated with committee meetings. This allocation may be used for meals and other incidental expenses related to committee meetings.

J. Changes to Purpose, Goals, and Action Plan

The goals, as recommended in the Board's strategic planning session, shall be conveyed to the committee at the organizational meeting during the annual conference and may be revised during the year as determined by the Board and the president.

II. Conference Events Development
