Presenters:

Jack Gaskins, Government Analyst, Special District Accountability Program
Florida Commerce

Kathryn Rossmell, Shareholder
Lewis Longman & Walker, PA

Overview:

This webinar provides a review of the more common independent and dependent special districts, how they are created, their purpose, their governance, financial structures, and their ability to provide services and improvements (Business Improvement Districts, Community Development Districts, Fire Control, etc.). It will also provide information to finance professionals about how these types of districts can be established to provide services to citizens and specific areas to compliment already established programs.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify various types of independent and dependent special districts
- Learn how special districts are created
- Discuss how special districts are governed
- List what special districts can and cannot do
- Discuss when creating special districts within municipalities makes sense

CPE Reporting Verification: Your participation will be recorded through the webinar software. You must be present and signed in the entire 100 minutes to receive credit. The FGFOA will receive a verification report after the webinar and will prepare the CPE certificates. You should receive your certificate via email in approximately 30 days.

This program being offered free of charge.
