Framing the Problem

Shifting the Conversation

» What We're Talking About

Shifting the conversation from budget automation towards budget strategy

- Improve decisions
- Drive outcomes
- Engage Community

Move away from “incremental, line item budgeting” by taking advantage of new ways of thinking, new technologies, and to better meet the changing needs of communities with a limited budget.

Budget Maturity

1

Initial

- Centralized
- Paper or spreadsheet based
- Annual

2

Managed

- Organized by department
- Decentralized
- Done in purpose-built software

3

Defined

- Included strategic initiatives
- Breaks out discretionary proposals
- Updates tied to actual results

4

Quantitatively managed

- Organized by programs and projects
- Cross functional teams collaborate on proposals
- Updated based on changing priorities

5

Optimizing

- Outcome based
- Tied to non-financial metrics
- Incorporates community feedback

Strategic Budgeting

Overview of different approaches

Budget Structure | Program-Based Budgeting

- Organize budget structure by Program instead of by Department
- Cross-collaboration needed between departments to coordinate services and budget proposals

▶ Strategic Budgeting in Atlanta Public Schools

- Guiding Principles of Budget Development
 - Depth vs. Breadth - Making deeper investments in specific parameters instead of distributing funds over too many disparate priorities
 - Budget parameters should be in alignment with the Mission, Vision, Strategic Plan and with the Charter System Operating Model

▶ Not Mutually Exclusive

- Approaches can be combined for greater impact
- Key is to start with the end in mind

Community Voice | Participatory Budgeting

- Extremely powerful tool in strategic planning
- However, it is really easy to mis-step and quickly damage community trust
- Key is to balance education, engagement, empowerment
- Often reserved for Strategic Initiatives, Capital Projects, and general community feedback

Implementation Plan

➤ Identify Budgeting Method

- To begin the budgeting process it is crucial to identify the budgeting methodology to use.
 - Doesn't have to be one
- Clearly communicate the method to your Departments and Elected Officials.

➤ How Can We Measure Success

- Before beginning spend time identifying how to identify success of the program
- Make sure that the data is available
- Make sure that the measures is truly connected to the goal
- Make communication the first step in the process

➤ How do we get started

- Start small and take steps to grow into your budget methodology
- We don't have to implement 100% year one, small incremental changes will get us where we want to go
- Communicate, Communicate, Communicate
